ABN: 82 890 764 133

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM 2009

The Applied Linguistics Association of Australia (ALAA), which is affiliated with the Association Internationale de Linguistique Appliquée (AILA), was founded in 1976. ALAA includes national and international members and fosters both practical and research-based national-level and international activities in applied linguistics.

ALAA promotes the usefulness of linguistic insights into a wide range of social and individual activities, supports the public development of policy in relation to language issues, organises an annual conference, produces the journal Australian Review of Applied Linguistics, edits occasional papers in applied linguistics, provides scholarships for high quality student research in areas of applied linguistics, and jointly sponsors the Australian Linguistics Institute with the Australian Linguistic Society.

What you get for your membership

The annual fee gives members access to:

- Three issues of the Australian Review of Applied Linguistics (ARAL) per year
- Discounted fees at ALAA Conferences
- Affiliated AILA membership (for more details please visit www.alaa.org.au)
(Please note: to receive your copy of the AILA Review for 2009 you must renew your ALAA membership on or before 1 February 2009).
- Other publications as determined by ALAA
